To Whom It May Concern,

I am pleased to write this letter of recommendation for Ms. SAVITHA R, a third-year undergraduate Psychology student currently in her fifth semester at Kumaraguru College of Liberal Arts and Science. I have had the opportunity to interact with her over the past three months as her course instructor for Health Psychology.

Despite having known her for a relatively short duration, she has distinguished herself through her initiative, articulate communication, and commendable leadership qualities. Her approach to both academic and extracurricular responsibilities is marked by diligence, clarity of purpose, and a strong sense of accountability. She contributes meaningfully to class discussions, consistently offering insightful connections between theoretical frameworks and practical applications within health and psychological contexts.

What sets her apart is her proactive involvement in key institutional and community-oriented initiatives. She played an instrumental role in coordinating a faculty-led masterclass, demonstrating excellent organizational and communication skills. Her commitment to social impact was further reflected in her independent volunteering efforts during Suicide Prevention Day.

Additionally, her participation in the DAADS School initiative provided her with valuable exposure to working with children, allowing her to better understand the concepts. Her ability to manage diverse responsibilities with professionalism and empathy highlights her maturity, initiative, and strong interpersonal competence, qualities that make her a promising candidate in both academic and applied psychological settings.

I am confident that her sincere academic interest, sense of responsibility, and hands-on experience through various roles have prepared her well for environments that value critical thinking, collaboration, and initiative. I believe she will carry these strengths into future opportunities and engage meaningfully with both learning and professional settings.

Sincerely,

Ms. Poovarasi
